College of Education/ Safi Al-Deen

Introduction:

The College was established in 1993. It aims to qualify an academic cadre in various fields. The College offers B.A., M.A. and Ph.D degrees. The undergraduate courses are full-time for four academic years: morning and evening studies, Evening Studies help candidates who desire to continue their learning but they did not have the opportunity to do so.

The College provides society with specialists and experts at all levels of study. Its graduates will be able to participate in developing the scientific situation in the country.

Objectives:

1. Making a drastic change in the society at all levels of scientific knowledge.
2. Concentrating on modern education according to a solid scientific knowledge base, believing that qualified graduates will be assigned as teachers in intermediate and preparatory schools to teach future generations.
3. Participating in the development of pedagogical mentality and enriching pedagogical philosophy to get balance between originality and novelty.

The College represented by its deanery, teaching staff, administration staff and students will keep on working to achieve the intended objectives.

The College consists the following departments:

Department of Arabic Language
Department of English Language
Department of History
Department of Geography
Department of Educational and Psychology

Courses of Postgraduate Studies

The college offers M.A. and Ph.D. Degrees. The department of Arabic offers M.A. and Ph.D degrees in literature and Linguistics. The duration of study for getting M.A. is at least two years with a full-time study programme. It consists of courses and a dissertation.

For getting Ph.D, the duration is about three years with a full-time study programme. The first year contains courses. Students should submit a research project to carry out the research through three years.

The dissertation should be defended by the scholar in front of an examining committee that is assigned by the University. The members of this committee should be external examiners, ie, from other national Iraqi universities. The details of courses are as follows:
